For Immediate Release:

Yekalo Weldewihet, Bailey Alexander, and Willis Small IV, three victims of the LoDo shooting, are relieved that a Grand Jury indicted Denver Police Department Officer Brandon Ramos for his reckless actions endangering not only our clients but the Denver community. Officer Ramos will be criminally charged, including with felonies, for the shooting of all three of our clients.

Mr. Weldewihet, Ms. Alexander, and Mr. Small IV want to thank the members of the Grand Jury for their service and District Attorney Beth McCann for all her efforts in seeking justice for the victims of the LoDo shooting. This is just a small step toward the accountability our community deserves and expects from its law enforcement officers.
