For Immediate Release:

The Glass family commends the District Attorney of the Fifth Judicial District for successfully prosecuting former Clear Creek County Sheriff's Deputy Kyle Gould. Mr. Gould has accepted responsibility for his part in the murder of Christian Glass by pleading guilty to the crime of Failure to Intervene. Most importantly, this result ensures that Mr. Gould is stripped of his Colorado Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) certification and will no longer have the privilege of serving as a law enforcement officer. The Glass family hopes that the greater law enforcement community learns from this prosecution and makes changes to their policies and cultures to prevent this type of tragedy in the future.

Former Clear Creek County Sheriff's Deputy Andrew Buen has not accepted any responsibility for shooting and killing Christian Glass. He has unconscionably pleaded not guilty to Christian's murder despite overwhelming evidence of his guilt. The Glass family's suffering unfortunately continues as they tirelessly pursue justice for Christian's murder through Mr. Buen's criminal prosecution.
